

Pacific School of Religion invites all readers of the Bible to join a rich, substantive exploration of sexuality and gender from a progressive, non-denominational Christian theological perspective.

Gender, Sexuality, & the Bible is an online course series and certificate.

Pacific School of Religion is a progressive, Christian seminary and center for social justice that prepares spiritually-rooted leaders to work for the well-being of all people.

Theological Education for Leadership is a series of special courses and seminars, providing progressive, accessible Christian theological education year-round for clergy, laity, and spiritual seekers from diverse racial/ethnic communities.

CENTER FOR
Lesbian and Gay Studies in Religion and Ministry

The Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies in Religion and Ministry advances the well-being of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people through education, research, community building and advocacy about religion and sexuality.

Is the Bible a

JOIN US FOR

Six highly engaging, sensitive, and community-minded monthly online sessions that bring participants into direct conversation with seminary faculty, faith leaders, and each other.

There are no educational or religious pre-requisites; just bring an open mind and desire to learn. Individual courses and the full certificate program are open to all, whether you plan to lead your congregation in study or simply ponder these issues at home over a cup of coffee.

For pastors and professionals, 1.6 CEUs are available for each course and 11.5 CEUs are awarded for the full certificate. This program does not grant academic credit.

YOU'LL LEARN TO

- Think theologically about contemporary sexual practices and identities
- Acquire a respectful common language for discussion of gender, sexuality, and the Bible
- Interpret the Bible through a progressive lens
- Gain confidence in leading and participating in discussions of gender, sexuality, and the Bible
- Uncover relationships between race, class, and sexuality
